

Acknowledgments

National Museum of American History
Director Brent D. Glass
Associate Director for Curatorial Affairs James Gardner
Assistant Director for Education and Public Programs Nancy McCoy

America on the Move Education Team

Project Director Steven Lubar
Curators Janet Davidson, Laura Hansen, Michael Harrison,
Paula Johnson, Peter Liebhold, Bonnie Lilienfeld,
Susan Tolbert, Roger White, William Withuhn
Educators Wendy Aibel-weiss, Julia Sytsma, Howard Morrison
Education Interns Carly Fraser, Karen Stults
Publications Designer Studio A

Teacher Advisory Board

Della Brooks, Horace Mann School, N.Y. Jane Miller, King George Elementary, Va.
Janet Burgess, Casa View Elementary, Texas Cynthia Mostoller, Deal Junior High, Va.
Elizabeth Cerrato, Poplar Tree Elementary, Va. Mary Puente, Healy School, Ill.
Kim Charboneau, Life Christian School, Wash. Sandy Rubenstein, Horace Mann School, N.Y.
Jim Endicott, Clarkmoor Elementary, Wash. Vicki Seeger, Pleasant Hill Elementary, Kansas
Basilis Giannetos, Ravenswood School, Ill. Susan Sittenauer, Seaman High, Kansas
Janie Griswold, High Tech High, Cal. Lynn Stanley, Washburn Rural Middle, Kansas
Rebecca Krucoff, La Guardia High, N.Y. Amy Trenkle, Stuart-Hobson Middle, Washington, D.C.

“State Farm Companies Foundation is proud to make possible the educational materials for America on the Move.”

The America on the Move exhibition is made possible by generous support from General Motors Corporation, AAA, State Farm Companies Foundation, The History Channel, United States Congress, U.S. Department of Transportation, ExxonMobil, American Public Transportation Association, American Road & Transportation Builders Association, Association of American Railroads, National Asphalt Pavement Association, The UPS Foundation

Thanks for research assistance: American Apparel and Footwear Association, Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising, Liz Claiborne, Inc.

Courtesy of Chicago Transit Authority