In order of appearance in Preparing for the Oath, the Civics Test items covered in this theme are:

15. Who is in charge of the executive branch?
   • the President

32. Who is the Commander in Chief of the military?
   • the President

33. Who signs bills to become laws?
   • the President

34. Who vetoes bills?
   • the President

28. What is the name of the President of the United States now?
   • Donald J. Trump
   • Trump

30. If the President can no longer serve, who becomes President?
   • the Vice President

29. What is the name of the Vice President of the United States now?
   • Michael R. Pence
   • Mike Pence
   • Pence

31. If both the President and the Vice President can no longer serve, who becomes President?
   • the Speaker of the House

35. What does the President’s Cabinet do?
   • advises the President

36. What are two Cabinet-level positions?
   • Secretary of Agriculture
   • Secretary of Commerce
   • Secretary of Defense
   • Secretary of Education
   • Secretary of Energy
   • Secretary of Health and Human Services
   • Secretary of Homeland Security
   • Secretary of Housing and Urban Development
   • Secretary of the Interior
   • Secretary of Labor
   • Secretary of State
   • Secretary of Transportation
   • Secretary of the Treasury
   • Secretary of Veterans Affairs
   • Attorney General
   • Vice President
Overview

This Teacher Guide will take you through the Civics Test questions covered in the theme, The Presidency. The instructional steps provided here target ESL students at the high beginning level. Watch the video on the Help screen and take some time to familiarize yourself with the elements and navigation of Preparing for the Oath so that you are comfortable presenting it to your class.

Special note: Remind your students that immediately prior to their naturalization interview, they should visit www.whitehouse.gov for current information on the President and the Vice President.

Introduction

To start the lesson, open the theme and present the Introduction Screen. Read the introductory paragraph aloud and discuss it with the students.

The president is the leader of one branch of the federal government. It is also called the executive branch. This branch enforces federal laws.

Explore the Questions

These steps will help you guide your class through the theme, using an LCD projector:

1. Distribute the handout Key Vocabulary—The Presidency and review the definitions with the students.
2. Click on the Start button to begin the first video, The President.
3. Play the video for the class with the captions on or off.
4. Pause the video where appropriate to discuss the vocabulary and images with the class.
5. Play the video again without pausing.
6. If there is a Practice activity available for this question, click on the “Practice” tab.
7. View and discuss the Practice activity.
8. Click on the “Try” tab.
9. Listen to the Civics Test item and have the students select the answer. Click on the “hear question” button to listen to the item repeatedly. After choosing the correct option, students can hear the answer aloud while they read along at the bottom of the screen.
10. Go through the rest of the videos in this theme, using the steps above.
11. Once the class has gone through all of the videos in this theme, wrap up this lesson with the handout, How Well Do You Know The Presidency?, or assign it to the students for homework.
Key Vocabulary—The Presidency

advise: to recommend or suggest; to offer your opinion to someone

bill: a proposed plan for a law that the government reviews cabinet: a group of government leaders who advise the president civilian: anyone who is not a member of the military or police

Commander in Chief: the U.S. president’s role as the official leader of the military enforce: to make people follow laws

federal: part of the central U.S. government, not state or local governments military: the armed forces (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, and Coast Guard)

override: to change an official decision represent: to make decisions for another person or group of people representatives: elected members of a government group in the United States, such as in Congress serve: to work for a certain period of time, usually in political office or in the military sign: to write your name on a document to show that you approve signature: a person’s name written in their own handwriting

sworn in: when an individual publicly promises to be loyal to a country or an important job

tie: to have the same number of votes on each side treaties: formal written agreements between two or more countries

wages: money earned for a job
How Well Do You Know The Presidency?

Read the answers below. Write the Civics Test question for each answer.

Example: Who is the Commander in Chief of the military?
Answer: The President is the Commander in Chief.

1. __________________________________________________________________?
   Answer: They advise the President.

2. __________________________________________________________________?
   Answer: The President is in charge of the executive branch.

3. __________________________________________________________________?
   Answer: The Vice President becomes President.

4. __________________________________________________________________?
   Answer: The President vetoes bills.

5. __________________________________________________________________?
   Answer: The Secretary of State and the Secretary of Labor.

6. __________________________________________________________________?
   Answer: The Speaker of the House becomes President.

7. __________________________________________________________________?
   Answer: The President signs bills to become laws.

Read the Civics Test questions below. Write the answer for each question.

1. What is the name of the President of the United States now?

2. What is the name of the Vice President of the United States now?