

1906

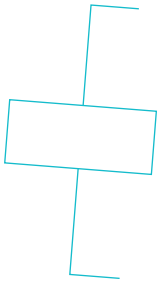

How did a teddy bear save a grizzly?

“The conservation of natural resources is the fundamental problem. Unless we solve that problem it will avail us little to solve all others.”

? Which president was a champion for the environment? What did he do to protect the American wilderness?

Find out in... THE AMERICAN PRESIDENCY on 3 Center

? What other artifact from the museum belongs on this list? Design your own tour stop here!

Title _____

Ask a question _____

A little more info _____

THE Naturalist

You walk on the wild side!

Exploring the wildlife, thinking about issues of conservation and how best to use what we've got, you like to see and think about as many new things as possible. When you check out the National Museum of American History, your eyes bug out!

Find Yourself in American History

1

Find the objects and people chosen to fit your personality.

2

Use the images and quotes to help your search.

3

Start on the 1st floor and move up through the Museum.

Smithsonian
National Museum of American History
Kenneth E. Behring Center

1970s

How can you vote with your fork?

"Every aspect of our lives is, in a sense, a vote for the kind of world we want to live in."

—Frances Moore Lappé, author of Diet for a Small Planet

? What movement brought us organic foods?
Discover in... FOOD on 1 EAST

1970

He or she can get you to Sesame Street.

"It's not that easy being green
Having to spend each day the color of the leaves
When I think it could be nicer being red,
or yellow or gold
Or something much more colorful like that."

? Whose song is this? Hang with the group in...
AMERICAN STORIES on 2 East

1933

Once upon a time, Californians put their money where their mouth is.

? What were some Californians using for money in the 1930s, and why did they have to resort to this?
Look for answers in... STORIES ON MONEY on 1 East

1918

Be nice to the pigeons; they helped win the Great War.

Little scrawny blue and white
Messenger for men who fight,
Tell me of the deep, red scar,
There, just where no feathers are.

What about your poor left leg?
Tell me, Cher Ami, I beg.
Boys and girls are at a loss,
How you won that Silver Cross.
—Harry Webb Farrington, 1926

? Whose song is this?
Where did he live? Who are his friends?
Hang with the group in... PRICE OF FREEDOM on 3 East

